MARK'S PETS ARE FOND OF CANDY.

A crazy Mexican woman created no little excitement at the depot Tuesday morning. She was about twenty-five years of age, and it was claimed that she was on her way to the asylum in Phoenix or Los Angeles, but immigrant inspector Adams interfered and refused to allow her to be admitted, and she was sent back into Sonora. While not violent she was very noisy and gave no little trouble before she was disposed of.

Mrs. E. A. Perkins arrived from Holbrook, A. T. Friday, a week ago, on a protracted visit to her son, E. P. Perkins.

Doctor A. F. Bonney, formerly editor of the Arizonian at Safford, Graham county, and lately with the Star, at Tucson, has accepted a post upon THE OASIS, and will devote his attention to forwarding the interests of this journal, gathering news, and soliciting advertising and job printing. Doctor Bonney is an accomplished journalist, and his work will be greatly appreciated by THE OASIS and by the public. His service upon the paper is an addition to the former force, and, in no way interferes with former arrangements. As heretofore, Mr. T. Healy is in charge of the mechanical department, and will also continue to solicit business.

Going With the Bears.

Mark Lulley Will Start for Washington
Shortly to Attend the Inauguration.

Next week Lucky Mark Lulley will start for Washington (his home) with the little bears, "Lulley" and "Lindsay," captured by Mark and Mr. L. Lindsay, when they were in the Santa Rita mountains last summer. Then they were little larger than kittens; now they are more than half grown, but as playful and cute as when first caught.

With the bears Mark will participate in the inaugural parade, in which he has already been assigned a position by the grand marshal; and after the parade he will consign them to the "Zoo," as the zoological park of the Smithsonian institute is familiarly known—Mark having donated the little fellows to that institution and the donation is accepted.

Their appearance in the parade—and the cost of sending the bears and Mark to Washington—result from an election bet made last fall between Collector of Customs Wm. M. Hoey of Nogales, and Hon. Thos. Taggart, of Indianapolis, chairman of the democratic state committee of Indiana. The loser, Mr. Taggart, defraying all expense.

In Washington Mark will tread his native heath, as the national capital is his birth place, the family being widely known. His father, Major Charles Lulley, a Hungarian exile who came to America with Kossuth, after the collapse of the revolution of 1848, and became an American citizen. He was widely known among men in public life a generation ago, and was greatly respected.

After his mission to Washington is finished Mark will return to Arizona, to resume his active operations in development and promotion of the rich mineral resources in the Santa Rita mountains.

The Nogales Water Co., are prepared to do all classes of plumbing, put in patent water closets, patent washstands, water heaters, etc. All wanting that kind of work should apply to the office of the company with Pascholy & Co.

THE BEARS ATTRACT A CROWD.
